Cooking Class/Party/Camp/Event Guidelines

1. Participants should arrive no earlier than 10 minutes prior to scheduled class and no later than beginning time. You don't want to miss out on any cooking fun by arriving late!
2. Participants should wear appropriate attire. Avoid loose or baggy clothes. Sleeves should be short or able to be rolled up. Aprons will be provided to protect clothes, but accidents can happen so it is recommended you wear clothes you don't mind getting dirty. Wear close-toed shoes and avoid high-heels.
3. If hair length is past ears, please wear a headband or barrette or pull back in pony tail, braid, or such.
4. Participants are expected to follow staff instructions, safety rules/guidelines, cooperate, and be respectful to staff and other participants.
5. Culinary Dreams, Inc. is an alcohol free entity.
6. Culinary Dreams, Inc. wants to provide a safe and comfortable environment for all ages, thus foul language and/or inappropriate behavior is discouraged. Its staff reserves the right to remove a participant for a brief period or permanently at any time for misconduct, theft, use of alcohol or drugs, disruptive behavior, or other reasons as they in their discretion shall think fit in order to protect the safety of the individual participant and others.
7. For safety reasons, children under 3 are not permitted in the kitchen/food prep area.
8. On occasion, photographs or videos may be taken. Culinary Dreams, Inc. will not post names with any pictures or videos that we may use on our website, Facebook page, or written materials. If there is an occasion when a name will be posted, Culinary Dreams, Inc. will obtain the participant's, or if under 18, a parent or guardian's permission in writing prior to doing so.
9. We will avoid cooking with certain ingredients, but the cooking facility and equipment is not an allergy free zone. We do recognize that food allergies are a serious matter. We will be glad to share with you ingredient lists so you can make a wise decision about whether you or the person for whom you are responsible should participate, or if possible, Chef Dede can make an adjustment to accommodate the allergy.
10. Culinary Dreams' goal is to use local and seasonal produce, meats, and seafood from area farmers and fishermen whenever possible, and will do our best to remain true to the advertised menu. We do exercise the right to substitute ingredients or menu items if needed based on availability.
11. Have fun! Enjoy cooking and eating!

Registration Policies

1. Registration for classes, camps, and events begins once advertised through our email newsletters, website, and Facebook page.
2. Payment is due at time of registration.
3. All participants, or if under the age of 18, a parent or guardian, must fill out and sign the participant Registration, Waiver and Release Form prior to the class, camp, or event.
4. If registration has been closed, please contact Chef Dede Trotter at 251.333.8908 or email culinarydreamsinc@yahoo.com to be put on a "waiting list." We will contact you if an opening becomes available or if we schedule additional sessions.
5. We recognize that family plans can change, but no refunds are given for not attending. If a registered person is unable to attend you can send someone in your/his/her place notifying Culinary Dreams, Inc. with the name and contact phone number of the person attending. It is up to you to receive any payment from him/her. Also, that person or parent must contact Culinary Dreams before the day of class or first day of camp to complete the registration process. Another option is if you have contacted Chef Dede at least one week before the class and if there is someone on the "waiting list"; Chef Dede will reach out to see if still interested. If so he/she will pay you directly for the spot.
6. If Culinary Dreams, Inc. makes a decision to cancel a class, camp, or event, you will be contacted and issued a full refund or credit.
